Located in a tranquil CUL-DE-SAC on Glendale Avenue, this splendid FOUR/FIVE BEDROOM DETACHED BUNGALOW is located in a tranquil cul-de-sac. As you approach the property, you are greeted by a large and attractive brick paviour driveway, which provides ample parking space and leads to a convenient carport and a GENEROUS TANDEM GARAGE/WORKSHOP, ideal for those with hobbies or requiring extra storage.

Upon entering, you will find a welcoming hallway that leads to a well-appointed sitting room, featuring a charming open fire and direct access to the beautifully landscaped rear garden. The spacious dining room boasts a dual aspect, allowing natural light to flood the space, making it perfect for entertaining. The modern fitted kitchen is designed with practicality in mind, complete with a breakfast table area for casual dining.

The main bedroom offers delightful views over the rear gardens and includes a well-sized ensuite shower room. The bungalow also features three additional double bedrooms, all served by a generously proportioned family bathroom, ensuring ample space for family and guests alike. For those who may not require a fifth bedroom, a separate study room provides a versatile option for a home office or additional living space.

The rear garden is a true highlight, featuring several landscaped areas that create a serene outdoor retreat. A central lawn is complemented by gravelled pathways that meander through to a larger lawned area, complete with an ornamental pond, perfect for relaxation and enjoying the beauty of nature.

This exceptional property combines spacious living with a peaceful setting, making it an ideal family home.
