This charming and characterful Grade II listed cottage fronts the High Street in the pretty and desirable village of Downton, just a few miles east of the cathedral city of Salisbury. The front door opens directly to the High Street or alternatively to the rear there is access across a shared gravelled driveway to the garden and car port.

Accommodation is arranged over three floors and is brimming with period features throughout, including an exposed brick fireplace in the sitting room, together with ceiling and feature timbers reputedly from an old sailing vessel!

On the ground floor there is a modern kitchen overlooking the rear courtyard. With room for table and chairs, there is a larger cupboard next to the stairs and open access through to the cosy sitting room with a woodburner in the feature inglenook fireplace. The dual aspect master bedroom occupies the first floor, along with a bathroom which includes a shower over the bath. A further double bedroom is at second floor level.

Outside there is a car port and parking space and beyond is the south facing garden complete with summer house. Enjoying a good degree of privacy, this is an ideal spot for relaxation or entertaining with a large patio set towards the rear of the plot.
