Location

Trinity Crescent is situated to the north of Edinburgh city centre, along the coast of the Firth of Forth. The area has a distinct maritime character due to its history as a fishing village and port. The waterfront offers stunning views of the sea, and the district has retained its charming atmosphere.

There is an abundance of local amenities. The popular chain pier bar and restaurant, Starbank Inn, Porto & Fi deli bistro, Fishmarket, and Newhaven Harbour are right on your door step. The Leith Shore area is located close by offering an extensive choice of cafes, restaurants and bars making this one of the most sought after location in Edinburgh
