Priory Street, Lewes

Within immediate level walking distance of Lewes train station, primary and secondary schools along with Lewes Priory and Southover Grange Gardens, is this deceptively spacious three bedroom period town house.

Displaying considerable charm and character that has been considerably modernised and extended by the present owner, who has loved and cherished living here for over two decades. The well balanced accommodation affords three double bedrooms with spacious family bathroom, through sitting/dining room leading to a fitted galley kitchen.

All enhanced by a south facing walled garden and side return. Ideal for entertaining and eating 'al fresco' with a brick built out house housing a cloakroom. All mains services are appointed to the property.
