- Victorian mid-terraced home
- Beautifully presented throughout and flooded with light
- Two spacious reception rooms, with bay windows to the front, wooden flooring and high ceilings flowing throughout
- Separate kitchen with modern, fitted units and plenty of space for all appliances
- Level rear garden, with patio and lawn
- Two double bedrooms and larger than average family bathroom
- Sought after location, minutes walk from Purley station and town centre
- Ideal first time buy or family home being within close proximity to amenities and schools

A character filled gem, just tucked away from the hustle and bustle, minutes from the centre of town. Ready to move straight into and plenty of space throughout; there is no need to compromise on anything!
