SITUATION

Located in the picturesque village of Buildwas, the property is situated down a private road which leads up to the farm that the barn was once a part of. Buildwas is ideally located for access to Ironbridge Gorge, and the town centres of Telford and Shrewsbury are just a short drive away.

DIRECTIONS

GROUND FLOOR

LOUNGE/DINER

This bright and airy room benefits from dual aspects, with floor-to-ceiling windows on one side, and French doors leading to the patio on the other. There are exposed beams with engineered oak flooring, along with wooden shutter blinds to create a cosy and inviting space. Storage options are available in the cupboard which is underneath the staircase, and there are rustic grange ledged doors adding to the character on offer.

KITCHEN/BREAKFAST ROOM

Seamlessly incorporating traditional and modern features, the kitchen/breakfast room provides a great space for the home cook, with a wide range of wall and base units, an electric Bellina Range double over, built-in appliances (dishwasher, washing machine, fridge and freezer), larder, solid wooden worktops, Belfast sink with drainer, and a large bespoke oak door allowing plenty of light into the room.
