DIRECTIONS
From Shrewsbury take the B4380 Atcham Road and after about 1 mile turn right onto the B4380 heading for Ironbridge. Follow this all the way through to Buildwas and then take the first right turning signposted Much Wenlock A4169 road and very quickly left, heading for Ironbridge. On reaching a mini roundabout, proceed straight across onto The Wharfage, then proceed along until you get to a further roundabout, when you take the first left onto Church Hill where the property can be found around 100 metres up the hill on the right-hand-side.

SITUATION
The property is set in a commanding position on Church Hill, providing elevated views over Ironbridge Gorge and the River Severn. Ironbridge centre is within walking distance, which is a World Heritage Site. The town centre offers a selection of shops, primary and secondary schools, together with a number of delightful walks. Ready access can be gained to main commuter routes linking through to Telford town centre, where you can find a wide-range of shopping and leisure facilities, rail service and connections onto the M54 motorway linking through to the M6 and Birmingham.

DESCRIPTION
As you approach, this charming three-bedroom period property – dating back to the mid-18th century there is an attractive front courtyard with traditional outbuilding, which is currently utilised as a utility and storeroom, with the courtyard providing ample space for potted plants and a seating area. You enter the property via a glass fronted porch, which in turn leads into a large kitchen and dining area. The first floor has a spacious lounge with further vistas across Ironbridge, plus a bedroom/study that provides access to the rear garden. Upstairs, there are two further double bedrooms on the second floor, plus a three-piece bathroom suite. The large terraced garden is south-facing, with mature trees and shrubs, grape vine, a variety of seating areas, vegetable patch, garden shed, summerhouse, wood store and small fruit orchard including eating apples, cherries and cooking apples. The upper part of the garden provides breath-taking, rooftop views of the 19th century St Lukes Church and over the 18th century Iron Bridge itself. The location is set within the Ironbridge Gorge World Heritage Site which offers a variety of woodland walks, cycle paths and access to a range of historic and cultural sites. Residents can park within the Ironbridge Gorge free of charge via a permit system operated by the Local Authority including on street parking.
