

Clovers Stableford, Bridgnorth, WV15 5LS

Offers in the region of £695,000

FOR SALE

Dating from the mid-17th century, this charming four-bedroom timber-framed cottage nestles in the Shropshire countryside, offering a tranquil retreat that perfectly marries historic character with modern living. The spacious interior includes a large quarry-tiled kitchen with bespoke oak units and electric Aga, a dining room with feature fireplace, a large living room with log burner and original bread oven. The four bedrooms are served by a family bathroom and a downstairs shower room. The property sits in approximately half an acre of landscaped gardens and offers convenient access to two main railway stations.

DESCRIPTION

AVAILABLE WITH NO UPWARD CHAIN. Originally three separate cottages, this beautiful, detached 17th-century Grade II Listed home has been tastefully modernised while preserving its historic character. Impeccably maintained throughout, Clovers offers timeless charm, with each window framing delightful views of the picturesque cottage garden and the sweeping countryside beyond. Inside, original exposed beams and period doors add to the home's rich heritage.

Upon entering the main doorway, the quarry tiled lobby serves as a practical boot room area and provides access to a ground-floor shower room, WC, storage cupboards and a utility area.

The kitchen living space with dual aspect windows comfortably contains a large dining and seating area. It is fitted with bespoke oak-panelled units topped with granite worksurfaces. Additional features include ceiling spotlights, a quarry tiled floor, an integrated electric Aga, dishwasher, and Belfast sink, with a practical walk-in pantry.

The kitchen leads into a welcoming dining room, where a large feature fireplace houses a wood stove. A half-glazed door opens into the porch, a versatile space that could be utilized as an office or an alternative entrance to the property.

Stairs from the dining room, with generous storage beneath, rise to the first floor, while another doorway leads into the spacious main living room. This characterful space includes a log burner set beside the original bread oven, and a door that opens directly into the front garden.

Upstairs, the staircase splits at a landing with a notably low beam further along the corridor. The principal bedroom enjoys idyllic views and includes built-in wardrobes. There are three additional bedrooms, one of which features a walk-in storage area.

The family bathroom includes a bath with mixer shower over, WC, and hand basin. A large airing cupboard and a walk-in storeroom are also located off the landing, providing excellent storage options.

The property is set within approximately half an acre of beautifully landscaped gardens that wrap around the cottage, thoughtfully designed to offer seasonal colour and year-round interest. Mature trees and shrubs provide structure, privacy and habitat for the wildlife in the garden. Features such as a wooden pergola, summerhouse/greenhouse, multiple vegetable beds, a pond, well-designed composting areas enhance the charm and practicality of the outdoor space. Several outbuildings, including a large garage/possible workshop/gym with storage cupboards, former pigsties and a Nissan hut contributing to ample storage space. A private driveway leads to a generous parking area very close to the house.

LOCATION

The cottage enjoys a peaceful and secluded setting, with public footpaths through Badger Chase and Badger Dingle to Beckbury and Ackleton. Nestled in a hamlet between Worfield and Badger, there is a choice of well-regarded local pubs just a short bike ride away. The location offers exceptional convenience, within 10 minutes of Bridgnorth, 15 minutes from junction 4 of the M54 or from Telford Central station and only 20 minutes from Wolverhampton station. The cottage falls within the parish of Worfield—home to a striking 12th-century spired church and a highly regarded primary school and nursery, both rated 'Good' by Ofsted. There is a wide range of secondary schools available at Bridgnorth, Telford and Wolverhampton.

DIRECTIONS

From Bridgnorth, take the A442 to Telford. Stay on this road for 2.8 miles before turning right, signed posted to Worfield. Stay on this road for 1.9 miles then turn left onto the B4176. Turn right in 30 yards towards Badger and left again in 130 yards into the driveway, shared with two bungalows on the right. The property is at the top of the driveway, hidden from the road.
