DESCRIPTION

This well-presented semi-detached home is entered via an enclosed porch featuring the original stained glass door, which opens into a welcoming entrance hall.

At the front of the property, the dining room enjoys natural light through a walk-in bay window. The lounge features an attractive fireplace with an electric fire. To the rear, the lounge offers views of the garden through its windows and rear French doors.

The kitchen, located at the back of the house, is both stylish and functional, offering a good range of base and wall-mounted units with complementary work surfaces. It includes, a four-ring ceramic hob with a separate double oven, built-in appliances, such as a tumble dryer, washing machine, dishwasher, fridge and freezer as well as access to the rear garden through both windows and a door.

Upstairs, a spacious landing provides access to the loft. There are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a bathroom fitted with a modern white four-piece suite, including a separate shower cubicle. The home benefits from gas central heating and double glazing throughout.

Outside, a block-paved driveway offers ample off-road parking. Gated side access leads to a generous corner garden, mainly laid to lawn and featuring a raised patio—ideal for outdoor entertaining.

LOCATION

The property is conveniently located within easy reach of Wellington Town Centre, whether on foot or by car. The town offers a traditional market, a range of local shops, a leisure centre, and excellent transport links including both bus and railway stations. The area is well served by educational institutions, with Wrekin College and Telford College both nearby. For commuters, Junctions 6 and 7 of the M54 are approximately one mile away, providing quick access westward to Shrewsbury and eastward to Telford Town Centre and the wider West Midlands region.
