Location:

The property is ideally situated within minutes from Weymouth's picturesque harbour in a sought after cul-de-sac at Rodwell. The atmospheric and highly popular Hope Square is literally a few minutes' walk away, boasting a small number of shops, galleries, open air cafes and restaurants. In the summer months a rowing boat operates across the harbour to the opposite quayside. There are numerous delightful walking opportunities close by including the Nothe Gardens and historic fort or simply walking along to the stone pier to take advantage of the sea views and fishing opportunities. Alternatively, Weymouth town centre can be reached by crossing the town bridge. The sweeping blue flag sandy beach, Georgian esplanade, leisure and entertainment facilities, shops and businesses make for a bustling town centre, all just a short walk away. Rail links from Weymouth to London or Bristol and an improved road network makes the area very accessible.
