GENERAL INFORMATION

Tile Sheds Farm is an excellent example of a productive Northumbrian mixed holding and is situated in a desirable area of mid Northumberland close to the popular villages of Whalton and Belsay. The farm has supported a substantial sheep and beef finishing enterprise for the vendors making the most of the productive grassland and extensive buildings the holding has to offer.

Tile Sheds was purchased by the Vendors with the family having historically rented the farm. Following purchase, the vendors embarked on a programme of improvement on the holding with the construction of an extensive range of buildings and in recent years the construction of an additional farmhouse to the south of the main farm steading. As a result the holding boasts enormous residential appeal in a most sought-after rural location.

Tile Sheds is located in a quiet rural location but is also readily accessible with the popular market town of Morpeth only 9 miles away and Newcastle upon Tyne only 17 miles away.

Description

The holding lies either side of the minor Meldon to Belsay road with the main of the holding extending to approximately 70 acres including Tile Sheds Farmhouse and buildings to the North of the Road and Park View Farmhouse and approximately 60 acres to the South. The land lies at around 120 metres above sea level with good sized productive grassland fields. Historically the holding has supported an arable rotation with 72 acres capable of being ploughed.

The farm benefits from two principal dwellings. Tile Sheds Farmhouse is central to the main steading and Park View Farmhouse, a new build farmhouse is situated overlooking parkland pasture to the south of the holding.

In addition to the range of modern and traditional buildings, there is an outlying traditional open fronted stone barn to the west of the holding which benefits from planning permission to convert into a residential dwelling.

Tile Sheds Farmhouse (Lot 1)

Originally the principal farmhouse for the holding, Tile Sheds Farmhouse has more recently been operated as a successful holiday let. The stone under tile built farmhouse is surrounded by a private and enclosed garden. The property extends to kitchen / dining room with AGA cooker with functional utility at the rear entrance; large reception room with woodburning stove; 3 bedrooms and a family bathroom. Oil fired heating and partial double glazing.

Adjacent the farmhouse is a traditional stone building that could offer potential for development for conversion to holiday let or residential use subject to planning.

EPC Rating: E. Council Tax Band: D.

Floor plan is approximate and is provided for visual reference only.
Plan produced using PlanUp.

Park View Farmhouse (Lot 2)

A modern stone built farmhouse constructed in 2010 and subject to an agricultural occupancy restriction. Park View is well situated overlooking parkland pasture, the property benefits from a private access separate to the main farm steading.

Extending to 5 bedrooms, Park View enjoys well appointed kitchen/ dining and reception rooms with double doors leading to the formal garden. The property is finished to a high standard. Oil fired underfloor heating and additional solar panel hot water system.

Externally there is a useful range of general purpose storage buildings.

EPC Rating: C. Council Tax Band: E.

Tile Sheds Barn Conversion (Lot 3)

Lying to the western boundary of the holding, Tile Sheds Barn is a former traditional livestock Hemmel occupying an elevated position with excellent far reaching views North towards the Cheviot Hills. The property has recently been granted planning permission for full residential conversion into a one bedroom dwelling. The planning reference is: 23/00992/FUL.

Although there are no services on site, there is an existing stone track and mains water is present on the southern boundary of the 14 acre grazing field identified as part of Lot 3. The property represents an ideal opportunity for a purchaser to create a stand alone dwelling or a holiday let to compliment the holding.

Land

The land at Tile Sheds Farm is productive grassland much of which is ploughable and has previously supported an arable rotation. In all the farm extends to 63.20 hectares (156 acres) or thereabouts, currently consisting of approximately 31.24 hectares (77.20 acres) of permanent pasture, 29.18 hectares (72.10 acres) of ploughable permanent pasture, with the remainder being woodland, tracks and farm steading.

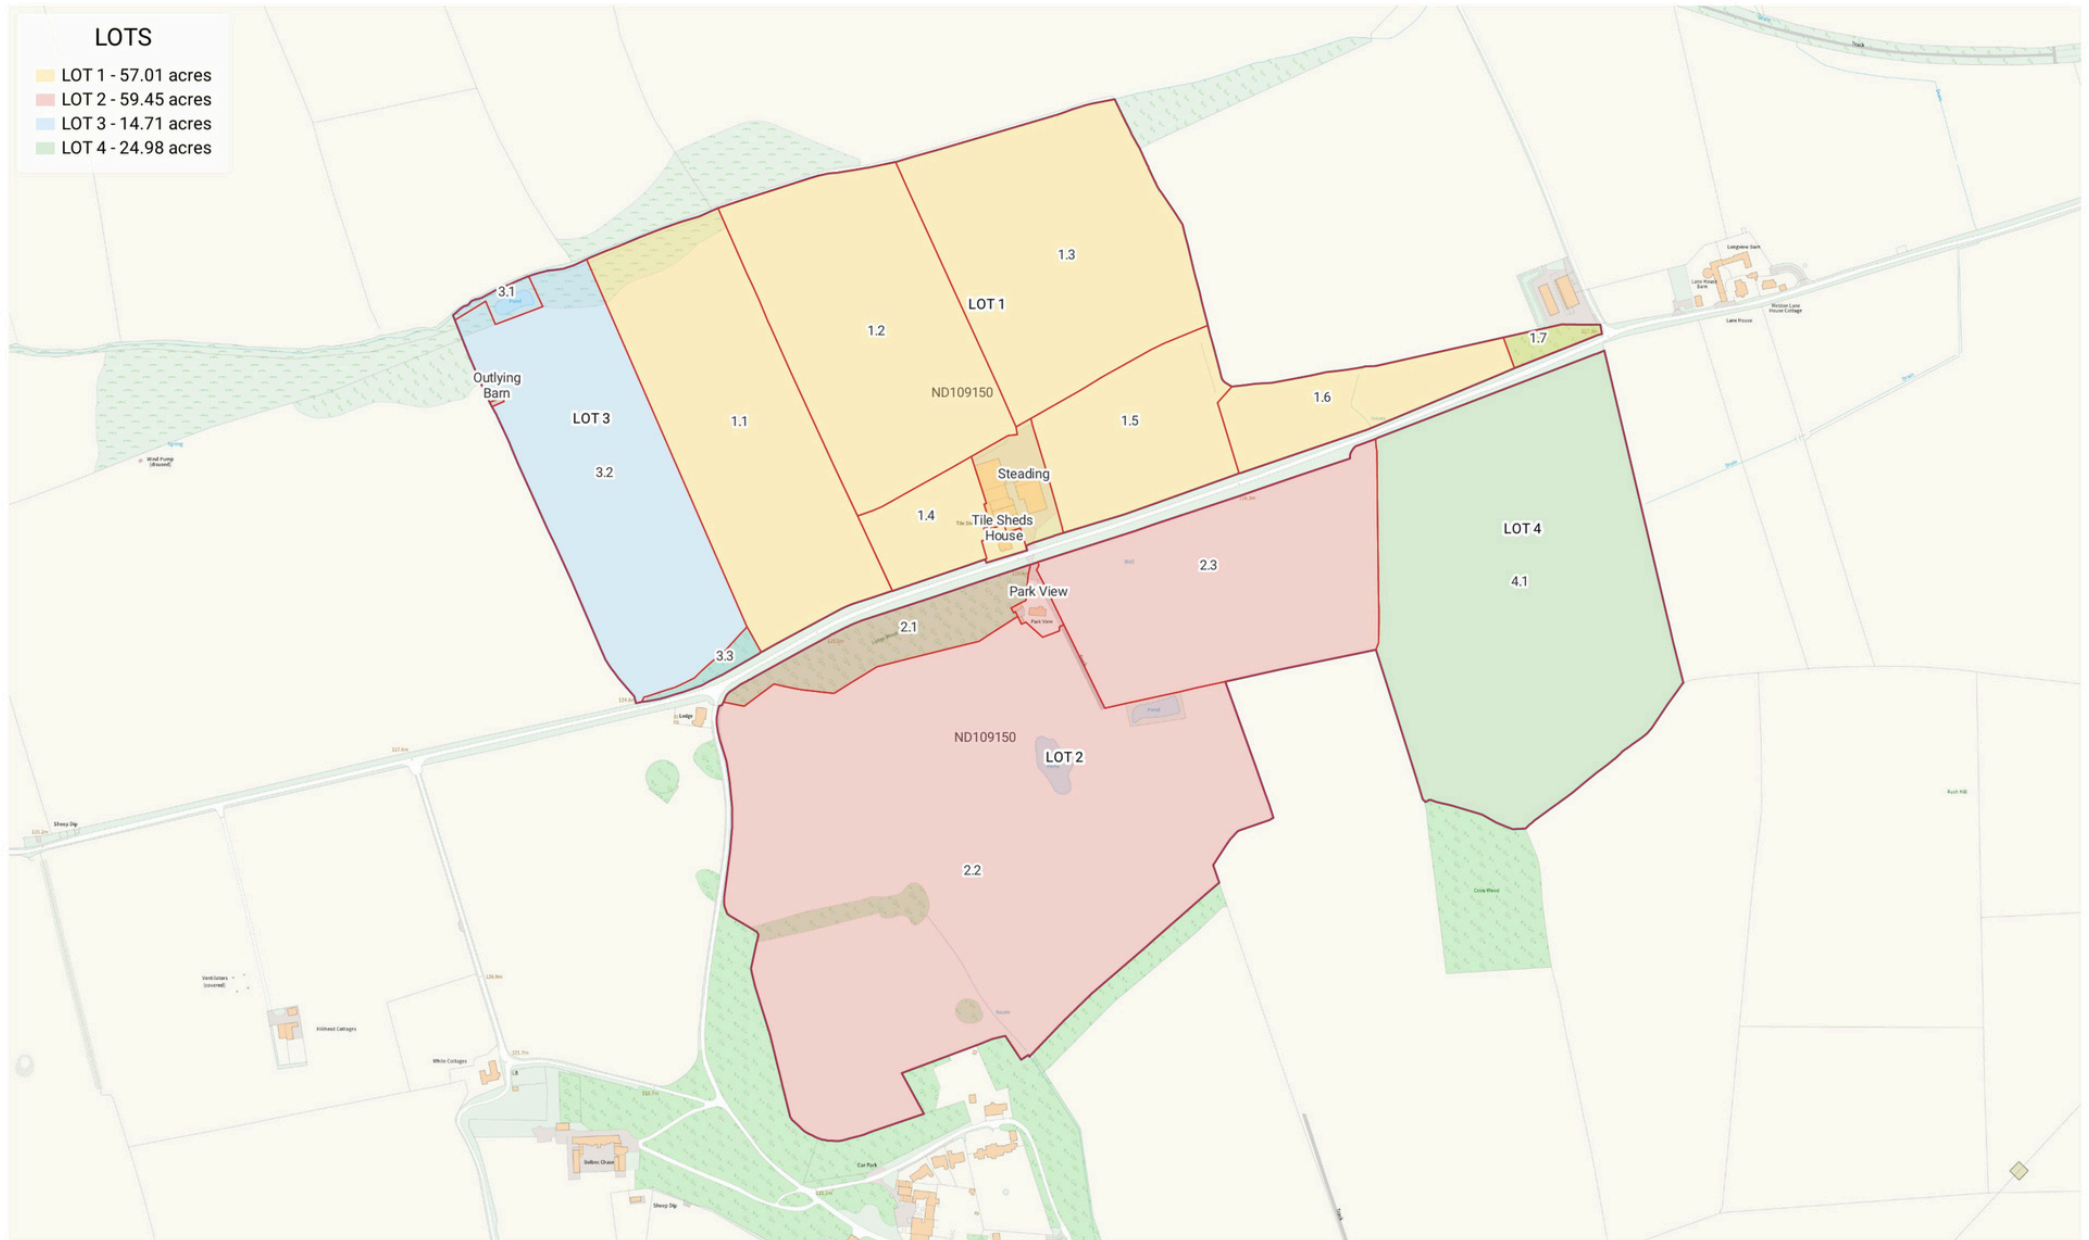

The land is split into four principal lots identified on the enclosed sales plan. Lot 1 comprises productive grassland surrounding the main farmstead and Tile Sheds Farmhouse. Lot 2 extends to parkland pasture and a ploughable grazing field lying to the south and east of Park View Farmhouse. The remaining land is split between permanent pasture land (Lot 3) and a mowing/ grazing field extending to 25 acres (Lot 4).

The land lies both south facing and to the north gently sloping to a tributary stream of the River Wansbeck. The fields are good sized, regularly shaped parcels, well suited for modern farming operations. The steading sits conveniently in the heart of the farm at 120m above sea level. Boundaries are well maintained and stock proof being a mixture of hedgerows and post and sheep net fencing. There are several woodland parcels and two flight ponds situated on the property which add to the amenity and sporting attributes of the property.

The farm is classified by the Rural Payments Agency as Non Severely Disadvantaged. Agricultural Land Classification map Northeast Region (ALC001) shows the land being predominantly classified as Grade 3. Formal land classifications aside, it is clear on inspection that both the grassland and farm in general is in good heart having been farmed to a high standard by the vendor.

Farm Buildings (Lot 1)

The farm is serviced by an extensive range of modern and traditional farm buildings. Adjacent to Tile Sheds Farmhouse there is a useful traditional stone under slate building that could lend itself to potential conversion subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents.

The modern farm steading that lies to the north of the main road currently supports the sheep and beef finishing enterprises, it would lend itself to a wide range of other farming and alternative uses. The buildings extend to workshop, 50t corn bin, five principal livestock buildings with lean to structures, hay shed and newly constructed open fronted general purpose building and muck store. The covered area extends to approximately 2,800 square meters (33,150 square feet).

GENERAL REMARKS

Environmental Schemes

Tile Sheds Farm is not currently entered into a Countryside Stewardship agreement but the holding is ideally placed to do so. The vendor has entered the land into the current Sustainable Farming Incentive (SFI) Scheme options and also has an agreement for a programme of fencing and hedgerow planting in place. Further details of scheme options are available from the agents on request.

Planning

Lot 2, Park View Farmhouse is subject to an agricultural occupancy restriction (ref: CM/20090467). Lot 3 Tile Sheds Barn Conversion benefits from planning permission for residential conversion (ref: 23/00992/FUL).
