Living In Sheringham

This is coastal living at its finest, with everything on your doorstep. Sheringham is delightfully charming with a rich history dating back to the 14th century, Sheringham was originally a fishing village and grew in importance when it became a destination for wealthy Victorians seeking a beach resort. The seaside market town is known for its stunning coast, beautiful blue flag beaches, and charming town centre.

Sheringham is an excellent destination for an active retirement. With its National Trust Park, picturesque coastline, stunning Golf Course and vibrant town amenities.

A perfect base for walking, cycling, golf and bird watching and is home to a variety of groups and clubs catering to different interests, such as gardening, fitness, swimming, bowls, arts and crafts, and history, offering the chance to pursue hobbies and make new friends. Sheringham has a lively events calendar, with festivals and fairs throughout the year.

SHERINGHAM IS A WELCOMING AND VIBRANT COMMUNITY TO CALL HOME.
