The subject property is a low-built, semi-detached, two-bedroom terraced house, situated in a charming mews in the sought-after Little Venice area. Spread across two storeys, the property offers two generously sized double bedrooms, two WC facilities, a functional kitchen, a lobby area, and the added benefit of a private roof terrace, perfect for outdoor relaxation or additional workspace.

Originally constructed in the 1990s with solid brick elevations, the property remains in structurally sound condition. Internally, while the building features a basic finish, it presents an ideal opportunity for refurbishment to suit modern requirements. The property is equipped with a gas central heating system, with radiators installed throughout.
