Charming 1930s Four Bedroom Detached Home with Generous Plot in Quorn

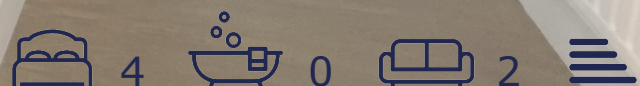

Full of character and kerb appeal, this attractive 1930s four-bedroom detached property is set on a well-regarded and established road in the ever-popular village of Quorn. Blending period features with thoughtful modern updates, the property sits on a generous plot with a wide frontage and offers an excellent balance of space, style and practicality—ideal for growing families.

The exterior of the home is particularly pleasant, with a mature and welcoming frontage providing parking for six or more vehicles. Gated side access leads to a detached single garage, and the overall plot gives a great sense of space and privacy.

Inside, the property retains much of its original charm, starting with a useful entrance porch and spacious hallway with characterful details. To the front, the bay-fronted reception room enjoys an abundance of natural light and leads through to a large, extended open-plan living and dining area. This space is a real highlight, complete with a log burner and doors opening out onto the rear garden—perfect for both entertaining and everyday family life.
