Property Details

A three double bedroom, split-level flat arranged securely on the ground floor of an appealing Victorian terraced house on the centrally located Ballater Road. One of Brixton's most popular residential streets, located between Clapham North and Brixton. The open-plan living space is particularly impressive, bright, open, airy which leads out to your very own private garden. A sleek modern kitchen occupies one half of the large room, complete with integrated appliances. The reception area is cosy but smart and there is still comfortable dimensions for a dining table, without any compromise to space, completing the ground floor two of the three double bedrooms can be found and a contemporary bathroom. Stairs lead to the first floor which consists of the third double bedroom which completes this property. Ballater Road is a residential, terraced street, popular for its close proximity to both Clapham North tube station on the Northern Line (seven minute walk) and Brixton tube station on the Victoria Line (nine minute walk). Tenants will benefit from the amenities in both areas, a few examples include the green open spaces of Brockwell Park and Clapham Common and all that Clapham, Abbeville Village, and Brixton Village have to offer in terms of food and festivities. Clapham High Street overground station is also available within a ten minute walk. A great flat in a great location.
