Property Details

A charming one-bedroom apartment with gated off-street parking, set within an elegant Victorian school conversion on the peaceful and sought-after Priory Grove. Offering almost 650 square feet of internal space, this bright and spacious home benefits from a share of freehold and chain-free status. The reception room is flooded with natural light and enjoys leafy views, with space for lounging, dining, and working, centred around a bespoke designer mantelpiece. Adjacent, the separate wrap-around kitchen is a delight, offering generous storage, ample worktops, and a large window for ventilation and light. The well-proportioned bedroom is a peaceful retreat, with plenty of space for furnishings, while the modern bathroom features sleek white tiling and a humidity-sensing extractor. Set quietly on the second floor with no sideways neighbours, the property enjoys rare tranquillity. Secure gated grounds include communal gardens, off-street parking, and a bike store, making this home especially inviting.
