Property Details

This spacious two-double-bedroom split-level apartment sits within an attractive Grade II listed purpose-built property. Entering on the third floor, a bright reception room with large-pane windows and exposed floorboards forms the heart of the home, offering comfortable space to relax or entertain and featuring a useful storage cupboard beneath the stairs. The separate kitchen at the front has a practical layout with base units and open shelving, a large butler sink with window for light and ventilation, and classic black-and-white chequerboard flooring, equipped with oven, hob, dishwasher and washing machine, and offering scope for modernisation. Also on this level is a bathroom with shower over bath, ideal for both quick routines and long soaks. Upstairs are two double bedrooms: the principal a tranquil retreat with space for wardrobes, and the second suitable as a guest room, home office or child's bedroom. Both enjoy good natural light and privacy thanks to their elevated position.
