Summary

Most impressive, 1930's four bedroom detached residence occupying a superb quiet cul-de-sac location on sought-after Brizlincote Lane, on the outskirts of Burton-On-Trent.

This particularly peaceful, superbly positioned, true character home is situated on an impressive plot measuring approximately 0.25 acre backing onto neighbouring meadow/fields and affords easy access into surrounding open countryside offering pleasant walks.

The accommodation is both spacious and versatile featuring an impressive L-shaped entrance hall with attractive staircase leading to the first floor, fabulous large drawing room with triple aspect windows and feature fireplace, south-facing formal dining room, large study/reception room with French door opening onto the garden, fitted breakfast kitchen, inner lobby, side porch, utility room and fitted guest cloakroom. The first floor landing leads to a good sized master bedroom with large en-suite bathroom, second double bedroom with shower cubicle and en-suite, two further bedrooms and a well appointed shower/wet room.

As mentioned, the property occupies a sizable plot set back behind a horseshoe driveway providing ample off road parking and access to the detached tandem garage.

To the rear of the property is an impressive, well stocked, landscaped garden featuring an upper stone terrace with steps leading to a lower level pathway intersecting two generous sized lawns and a further patio area with raised beds offering views over neighbouring fields. The garden features an abundance of specimen plants, shrubs and mature trees.
