Summary

This is a rare and exciting opportunity to acquire a substantial detached dwelling incorporating a self-contained annex occupying a large private plot affording magnificent views over neighbouring open countryside. Internal viewing is essential to fully appreciate the spacious and versatile accommodation on offer.

The property would suit multi-generational living with the main house featuring double glazed and gas central heated accommodation comprising porch, utility cupboard, high specification bespoke fitted breakfast kitchen, large lounge with feature fireplace, separate dining room and study. An impressive inner hallway incorporates a garden room with fabulous views, a principle bedroom with luxurious en-suite bathroom and first floor bedroom with en-suite bathroom. The interconnecting hallway then leads to a self-contained annex with open plan living kitchen featuring lounge/dining area and fitted kitchen, double bedroom and a well-appointed shower room. The annexed accommodation can be either accessed internally or externally.

The property occupies an extremely private plot and offers a high degree of privacy. Set well back from the lane behind an extensive gated driveway with electric gates culminating in a large standing area and giving access to an attached garage with carport and electric door. Gardens lie to the rear of the property and are almost due south making for a bright and very sunny garden. The garden features a patio area with well-stocked borders which is a fabulous spot to enjoy the far-reaching views over open countryside.
