Summary

Located on a highly sought after road in the charming village of Repton, Derby, this traditional detached house on Chestnut Way offers a splendid opportunity for family living and easy access to local amenities plus connection with the A38, A50, A6 and M1.

The standout feature of this property is the generous plot of approximately one half of an acre, providing ample outdoor space for relaxation and recreation and clearly ample space to extend/develop (subject to necessary planning permission). The rear garden is fabulous and the current owner participates in the National Garden Scheme holding regular 'open garden' events.

Upon entering, you are greeted by an entrance porch leading to a hallway with cloakroom/WC off. The heart of the home is undoubtedly the 'L' shaped, comprehensively fitted, modern dining kitchen, which boasts bi-folding doors that seamlessly connect the indoor space to the rear garden. There is a well proportioned lounge/dining room with a log burning stove and a generous conservatory off. Perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying quiet family evenings.

The property features four spacious bedrooms, ensuring that there is plenty of room for family members or guests. Bedroom one has an en suite shower room and in addition there is a modern family bathroom with a separate WC.

For those with vehicles, the property has an 'in and out' driveway which offers parking for around five vehicles and a garage with workshop,

Repton is known for its community spirit and excellent local amenities, together with the prestigious Repton School, making it an ideal place for families and individuals alike. The combination of traditional charm and modern conveniences makes this home a perfect choice for anyone looking to settle in a picturesque setting.
