This charming and spacious two-bedroom maisonette is a fantastic opportunity, offered chain-free and with a share of the freehold.

Perfect for first-time buyers or investors, this property boasts a prime location and excellent features. Located less than half a mile from St Eanswythe's Church of England Primary School, rated Outstanding by Ofsted, and conveniently close to Folkestone town centre and the picturesque harbour, providing easy access to shops, restaurants, and local amenities.

The property features two generously sized bedrooms, spacious living areas filled with natural light, and a spacious kitchen and bathroom. While the property could benefit from some updating, you can put your own mark on it and make it your home.

Additional benefits include a share of the freehold, ensuring long-term security and low ground rent, and being chain-free, allowing for a smooth and swift transaction. This ideal location combines a popular residential area with proximity to vibrant town life. Don't miss out on this excellent opportunity.
