Bedrooms: 3 | Bathrooms: 1 | Receptions: 1

If you're searching for the ideal family home, this extended three-bedroom semi-detached property in Denham Close, Dymchurch could be just what you've been looking for. Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac, it offers both peace and privacy while still being close to local amenities, schools, and transport links. With generous parking for four to five cars at the front, it's perfectly suited to busy family life.

Inside, the home has been thoughtfully extended to provide a superb amount of living space. The ground floor flows beautifully, featuring a modern kitchen and dining area that's perfect for family meals or entertaining, a cosy snug/dining room ideal for relaxing, and a large living room to the rear currently used as a games room. There's also a handy downstairs WC for convenience.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom is truly impressive – designed with a sense of luxury and space in mind. It features a dedicated walk-in wardrobe area and still has ample room for a large bed and even a comfortable seating area, creating a real retreat at the top of the home. The additional bedrooms are well presented and share a modern family bathroom, while the neutral décor throughout gives the property a contemporary, move-in-ready feel.

Outside, the rear garden has been cleverly landscaped across different levels to maximise the space. It's a generous size and offers areas for play, relaxation, and gardening, while still remaining relatively low maintenance.

Denham Close enjoys a desirable location in Dymchurch – a popular coastal village known for its sandy beaches, welcoming community, and easy access to Hythe, New Romney, and the wider Kent coastline. With a combination of space, style, and setting, this is a home that truly delivers on every level.
