NEW COMMUNITY
σ

Mewsbrook

Your new community is bustling with things to do. Mewsbrook, a Green Flag-awarded park, is just a short walk from your new address, offering plenty of activities, including boat and pedalo hire and a miniature railway, with original Art Deco shelters dotted around the green spaces. Following an afternoon's exploring, Mewsbrook Café, serving homemade cakes, is the perfect spot for refreshments.

Retail therapy

If you fancy a day of retail therapy, Windmill Shopping Village is just 15 minutes' drive away, boasting several independent shops. The Royal Arcade, in Worthing, is reachable within 30 minutes and offers many independently owned boutiques, housed in a beautifully restored Edwardian arcade.

Eateries

The local community centre is just four minutes away by car, with its range of fitness classes and social activities including Zumba, Pilates, chair yoga and a knitting group. The village is not short of eateries – The Beach Café, located on the seafront, just a short walk away, not only offers a range of homemade food, but is a social hot-spot, regularly hosting events such as wine-tasting evenings, quizzes and open-mic nights. It is also a haven for water sports, including kitesurfing, paddleboarding and windsurfing.

For those who enjoy a Spanish menu, Fig. is a café by day and an authentic Spanish tapas restaurant by night. Just a two-minute walk from Seascape is The New Inn, a cosy local pub, serving a range of local ales.

Sports

Rustington is not wanting for sporting opportunities, either, with Norfolk Gardens just 15 minutes' walk away, boasting three all-weather tennis courts, a nine-hole par-three golf course and lawn bowls. For avid golfers, there are three prestigious golf clubs all within 10 minutes' drive from Seascape: Rustington Golf Centre offers a floodlit driving range and par-70 course; Littlehampton Golf Club is an 18-hole par-70 course, with breathtaking views of the Sussex coast and South Downs; Ham Manor Golf Club is a parkland course set between the coast and Sussex countryside.
