This unique character cottage provides well presented and spacious living accommodation with a fully fitted and practical kitchen offering modern integrated appliances, plenty of light wood base and eye-level storage cupboards and a marble effect worktop. The large sitting room/dining room enjoys patio doors to the private, fenced rear garden and windows to the side elevation, a light and sunny room.

Upstairs there are two well appointed bedrooms both with fitted wardrobes and enormous amount of storage from the landing area. The bathroom is well designed with a classic white suite of WC, wash hand basin and bath with shower over Outside is a fence and hedge enclosed secluded and pretty rear garden and ample parking available. This property is situated in a lovely location close to the Sussex countryside with local scenic walks yet close to local amenities and various transport link options.

Viewing is essential to fully appreciate this cottage.
