Combined Freehold & 'The Country Tea Shop' business FOR SALE. Such a rare opportunity to acquire a heritage property with a Combined COMMERCIAL & RESIDENTIAL use. In our opinion prospective buyers may consider 'change of use' to full residential subject to the relevant consent. This Grade II listed property presents a unique opportunity for those seeking a combined family home and commercial venture. The property, located on Front Street, is currently home to the delightful 'Country Tea Shop', a well-established tea-room and restaurant that boasts a large seating cafe/restaurant, preparation kitchen, and fully equipped main commercial kitchen with freezer/store room at the rear, perfect for servicing both the business and the family residence above. The Country Tea Shop is a popular destination for walkers and cyclists. Established 1964, the current owner took over in 2002, at which point the Tea Room was only open on weekends. Subsequently due to high demand it has been opening 7 days a week, only recently reducing to 6 days a week. The succulent Sunday Roast has become somewhat of a favourite. The business also offers takeaways & a delivery service to the community and surrounding areas.

Located in the heart of Staindrop, a picturesque village in County Durham, known for its rich history and strong sense of community. Situated approximately 6 miles from Barnard Castle & 12 miles from Darlington. The village has a welcoming atmosphere for residents and visitors alike. One of the most notable landmarks is Raby Castle, a stunning medieval castle set within expansive parklands.

It benefits from oil central heating, with the windows mostly wooden single glazed, many sash style.
