PRICE £269,995

A charming three bedroom cottage, set within a small community of cottages, located off the Harlestone Road, between the villages of Harlestone and East Haddon. The property has been well maintained and benefits from good size gardens to the front and rear, a detached garage and off road parking to the side of the end cottage.

The accommodation includes entrance porch, sitting room with fireplace and doors leading through to the dining room, fitted kitchen with large utility cupboard and separate storage cupboard, ground floor bathroom with shower over the bath, first floor landing, three bedrooms and shower room. Outside, the property has an open plan front garden which could be utilised for further off road parking (subject to planning permission.) The rear garden is a good size with patio, lawn and a private aspect. There is a gated drive to the side of the cottages leading to the garage which is the middle one of three. Further benefits include gas radiator heating and electric heating. (C/1061/M)
