THE PROPERTY

The versatile living space boasts a warm and charming sitting room with log burner and French doors onto the main garden. There is then a beautiful kitchen family room creating a real hub to the home and embracing the farmhouse styling with it's beautiful AGA and ample space for dining and sitting areas. Off the kitchen you have access to a separate dining room, garden room with panoramic views of the garden and a utility room.

On the first floor there are three bedrooms, the principle bedroom has fitted wardrobes and an en suite. The additional two bedroom are both doubles which also benefit from fitted wardrobes. This floor is also host to the modern family bathroom.

The stairs to the second floor lead you to another two double bedrooms which are both endearing with it's vaulted ceilings and dormer windows. These two rooms share a modern shower room.

To the front of the property is a small lawned area beyond which is a low level wall with wrought iron fencing and a path that leads toward the front door under a storm porch. Behind the property is a double width driveway that sits in front of the part converted double garage which is now a single garage, bike store and gym. From here you have access to the paved courtyard which basks in the morning sun. To other side of the property you have the main garden which is private, westerly facing and complete with a large lawned area and paved patio area directly off the main living quarters.

LOCATION

The River Nene flows alongside this pretty village positioned just 4 miles west of Northampton. Blessed with three 'watering holes' who also serve food, Kislingbury is home to several small businesses and amenities including, family butcher, post office and general stores as well as Hoggleys brewery once famed as the smallest licensed brewery in Britain. There is also a cricket club and 'Drunken Duck' pavilion. Kislingbury has its own primary school which feeds into Campion Secondary school in the next village of Bugbrooke, 2 miles away. The village also benefits from a church, chapel, sports field, playground and plentiful open green areas despite being only ½ mile from the A45 Northampton ring road and 3 miles from Junction 16 of the M1. Public transportation options include the regular bus service which runs to Northampton where the train station offers mainline services to both Birmingham New Street and London Euston.
