A superb third floor three bedroom apartment in a convenient city centre location overlooking the River Wye and adjacent parks

SITUATION

Riverview Court is delightfully situated close to Hereford Cathedral and enjoys fine views over the river Wye and beyond. The building was converted in 2008/09 and retains the Art Deco façade inside and out. It is just a short walk from both the city centre amenities including the new and vibrant Old Market development of shopping and leisure facilities, with opposite, lovely walks through King George V playing fields and along the banks of the river towards Breinton. The recently upgraded HALO leisure pool, gym and tennis courts are nearby and just a short walk to the Courtyard Theatre, make this property appealing also as a second home/holiday apartment and is an ideal 'lock and leave' with its secure electronically operated gated parking. It benefits from lift access and has an impressive polished marble Communal Entrance Hall.

DESCRIPTION

The apartment itself comprises a spacious top floor three bedroom apartment with accommodation all to one level, fitted to a high quality specification including luxurious kitchen with high gloss flooring, Meile appliances, open plan sitting and dining room with lovely views towards Victoria footbridge, Master bedroom suite including bedroom, dressing room and shower room, with additional luxurious family bathroom.
