Conveniently yet quietly situated, reconfigured and completed refurbished 4 bedroom detached dormer bungalow adjoining open countryside.

SITUATION

The small rural hamlet of Nunnington is most conveniently situated approximately 4 miles north east of the city, giving ease of access via the A4103 to Worcester and the M5 motorway access and A438 to Ledbury, M50 and the wider motorway network. The villages of Withington, Sutton St Nicholas and Bartestree provide a good range of local amenities. Hereford itself offers a wide range of services and amenities including a mainline railway station, leisure and health facilities, The Old Market shopping, cinema and restaurant complex, with the city centre, High Town, Church Street boutique shopping, the beautiful Cathedral and river Wye walks and parks.

THE PROPERTY

Summerland has been the subject of a complete and comprehensive reconfiguration and refurbishment, completed during 2019 and including a complete rewire, new mains gas fired central heating system (individually thermostatically controlled to each room) and combination boiler, high levels of insulation, newly installed kitchen, bespoke wet room designed for disabled use, bathroom and all associated plumbing along with under floor heating, newly fitted utility room and WC, new wooden doors throughout and all new floor coverings. The property now offers deceptively spacious and very versatile accommodation suitable for multi generational living, disabled use, family use or equally the downstairs rooms could be used as additional reception rooms if required.

The position adjacent to open farmland and gardens facing due south create a lovely living environment, peaceful and tucked away yet close to a wide range of local amenities with Hereford itself just a short drive away.
