WELCOME TO WELLBANK COTTAGE

Nestled in the heart of Gullane's highly sought-after Goose Green area, Wellbank Cottage is a captivating residence that seamlessly blends historic charm with modern comfort.

Built circa 1880, Wellbank cottage comprises of a traditional stone structure that elevates the traditional character of the cottage. The cottage offers a private parking space to the north of the premise across from the green. A lovely secluded garden is included, providing a peaceful sunspot right in the center of the village. Both dining room and kitchen receive excellent sunlight also.

The cottage features large bay windows at the front entrance, inviting an abundance of natural light. Ascend the classic wooden bannisters of the spiral staircase to the first floor, where you'll find a shower room boasting an electric shower and toilet, upper hall and two spacious bedrooms with king-sized beds and picturesque views, both equipped with built-in storage.

Downstairs, there is a large living room, complete with a serviced gas fire, offers a cozy haven with serene garden views. As you make your way through the hall you will find a spacious third bedroom hosting two single beds. Further through, you will come across a cozy and versatile nook with newly added wallpaper and lighting, perfect for a home office or playroom. A large second bathroom can be found further down the hall boasting a mains powered shower, storage and toilet with a large skylight.

The rear garden access is located opposite the bathroom with a secure door and security light. In the garden you'll find beautiful greenery and a large garden shed, ideal for garden tools or golf clubs! A small patio area is located to the northern area of the garden, providing an excellent spot to enjoy a coffee or spot of lunch to enjoy the private and pretty garden. A newly built garden gate can be found with street access to goose green road.

Wellbank cottage hosts a spacious dining area with two double sash and case windows offering excellent sunlight and beautiful views of the garden. There is a kitchen located at the northern end of the cottage that consists of beautiful granite work top, ample storage space and an excellent view of the garden. The afternoon sunlight provides an ideal setting for cooking and enjoying time in the kitchen. A practical utility room houses a one-year-old combi boiler and offers additional storage. Recently repainted throughout, Wellbank Cottage presents a fresh and inviting ambiance. This charming home is a rare gem, offering privacy and tranquility in a prime Gullane location.
