Welcome to Keerford View

We think you will be amazed by our latest Retirement Living development Keerford View, Carnforth.

Carnforth derives its name from the ford of the River Keer. Over the time the descriptive name “Keer-Ford” morphed into the modern “Carnforth”.

Designed exclusively for the over 60’s, our Retirement Living developments give you the best of both worlds. You have the benefit of owning your own home, free from worries about external maintenance or gardening – and there’s support if you need help with anything. With so much attention to detail, it’s no wonder McCarthy & Stone is the UK’s leading retirement housebuilder.

The perfect location for Retirement Living

Carnforth is a small and vibrant town just 5 miles north of Lancaster and Morecambe. It's the ideal location to retire to, with its stunning natural beauty, great local facilities and easy public transport links.

The town centre has a range of traditional and specialist shops with a variety of pubs and restaurants to suit most tastes making this a truly popular town with local residents and tourists alike.

Our new retirement development is located in a central location, backing onto Carnforth Cricket Club. You'll be within walking distance of all of the town's main amenities, including Tesco supermarket, Boots and Aldi.

The town of Carnforth first appeared in the Domesday Book where it was known as Chreneforde, located in a slight valley where the River Keer enters the Kent estuary.

Carnforth's other claim to fame, apart from the scenery and historic houses, is the railway station featured in a 1945 film called "Brief Encounter". The film records an extra marital love affair between two married middle class people mostly against the backdrop of the railway station – directed by David Lean the film has been described as a brilliantly crafted British classic.

apartments are built to high standards

“ I have settled in very well and I love the friendly atmosphere from staff and neighbours. If you have any problems there is always someone to help.

I did use House to Home and it was superb at both ends of the move.

I would I definitely recommend Latham Court to my friends as I believe it is an ideal place to live especially when you are getting older as it gives you peace of mind and you make a lot of new friends.

Kay Fabian - Homeowner

“ We were surprised to find how easy it was to settle in. We were delighted to find such a friendly/social crowd of occupants. The location of medical services, dentists and opticians, plus shopping close by, not forgetting the ladies hairdresser. We took advantage of Part Exchange which avoided long waiting periods when houses were not selling. Our process took only weeks from approval to moving in. The offered 'House to Home' removal service proved a god send.

Mrs Rountree - Homeowner

“ The move went very smoothly and I saw it as a new venture in my life. It felt right as soon as I got there. The staff and contractors made me feel welcome and gave me all the help I needed. The building was lovely and the apartment welcoming and spacious... I enjoy the choice of staying in my apartment or meeting friends in the lounge or restaurant.
