Modern living in a historic market town.

Surrounded by beautiful rolling countryside and the birthplace of the world-famous playwright William Shakespeare, this Warwickshire town has much to offer its residents today. Impressive architecture. Rich culture. Great shopping. Lots of things to see and do. Stratford-upon-Avon really would be a delightful place to call home.

Find your happy place in Stratford-upon-Avon.

A short distance from the town centre is Romeo Place, named after one of Shakespeare's most famous romantic heroes. Designed with the over 60s in mind, the development is built to high standards and is an ideal place to live life well.

Live life your way.

Romeo Place is conveniently located - for everyday essentials, there's a Morrisons supermarket next door, and you can walk to the town's centre (0.6 miles) to find an array of independent shops, boutiques and restaurants. The Maybird Shopping Park (5-minute drive) has many familiar stores plus a Tesco Superstore next door.

Foodies will love the excellent choice of eateries and bars. Everything from afternoon teas to fine dining are on offer, covering cuisines from European to Vietnamese.

Enjoy a hearty meal in one of the town's oldest buildings at Lambs, or a freshly prepared lunch at Plantarium Café, or for a healthier bite, there is the popular, yet affordable Arcle.

Stratford-upon-Avon retains a number of 16th century Tudor houses that would have been familiar to Shakespeare – his mother's house and final dwelling place are within five miles. His influence is evident in the rich programme of productions at three theatres run by the Royal Shakespeare Company, all within a mile from Romeo Place.

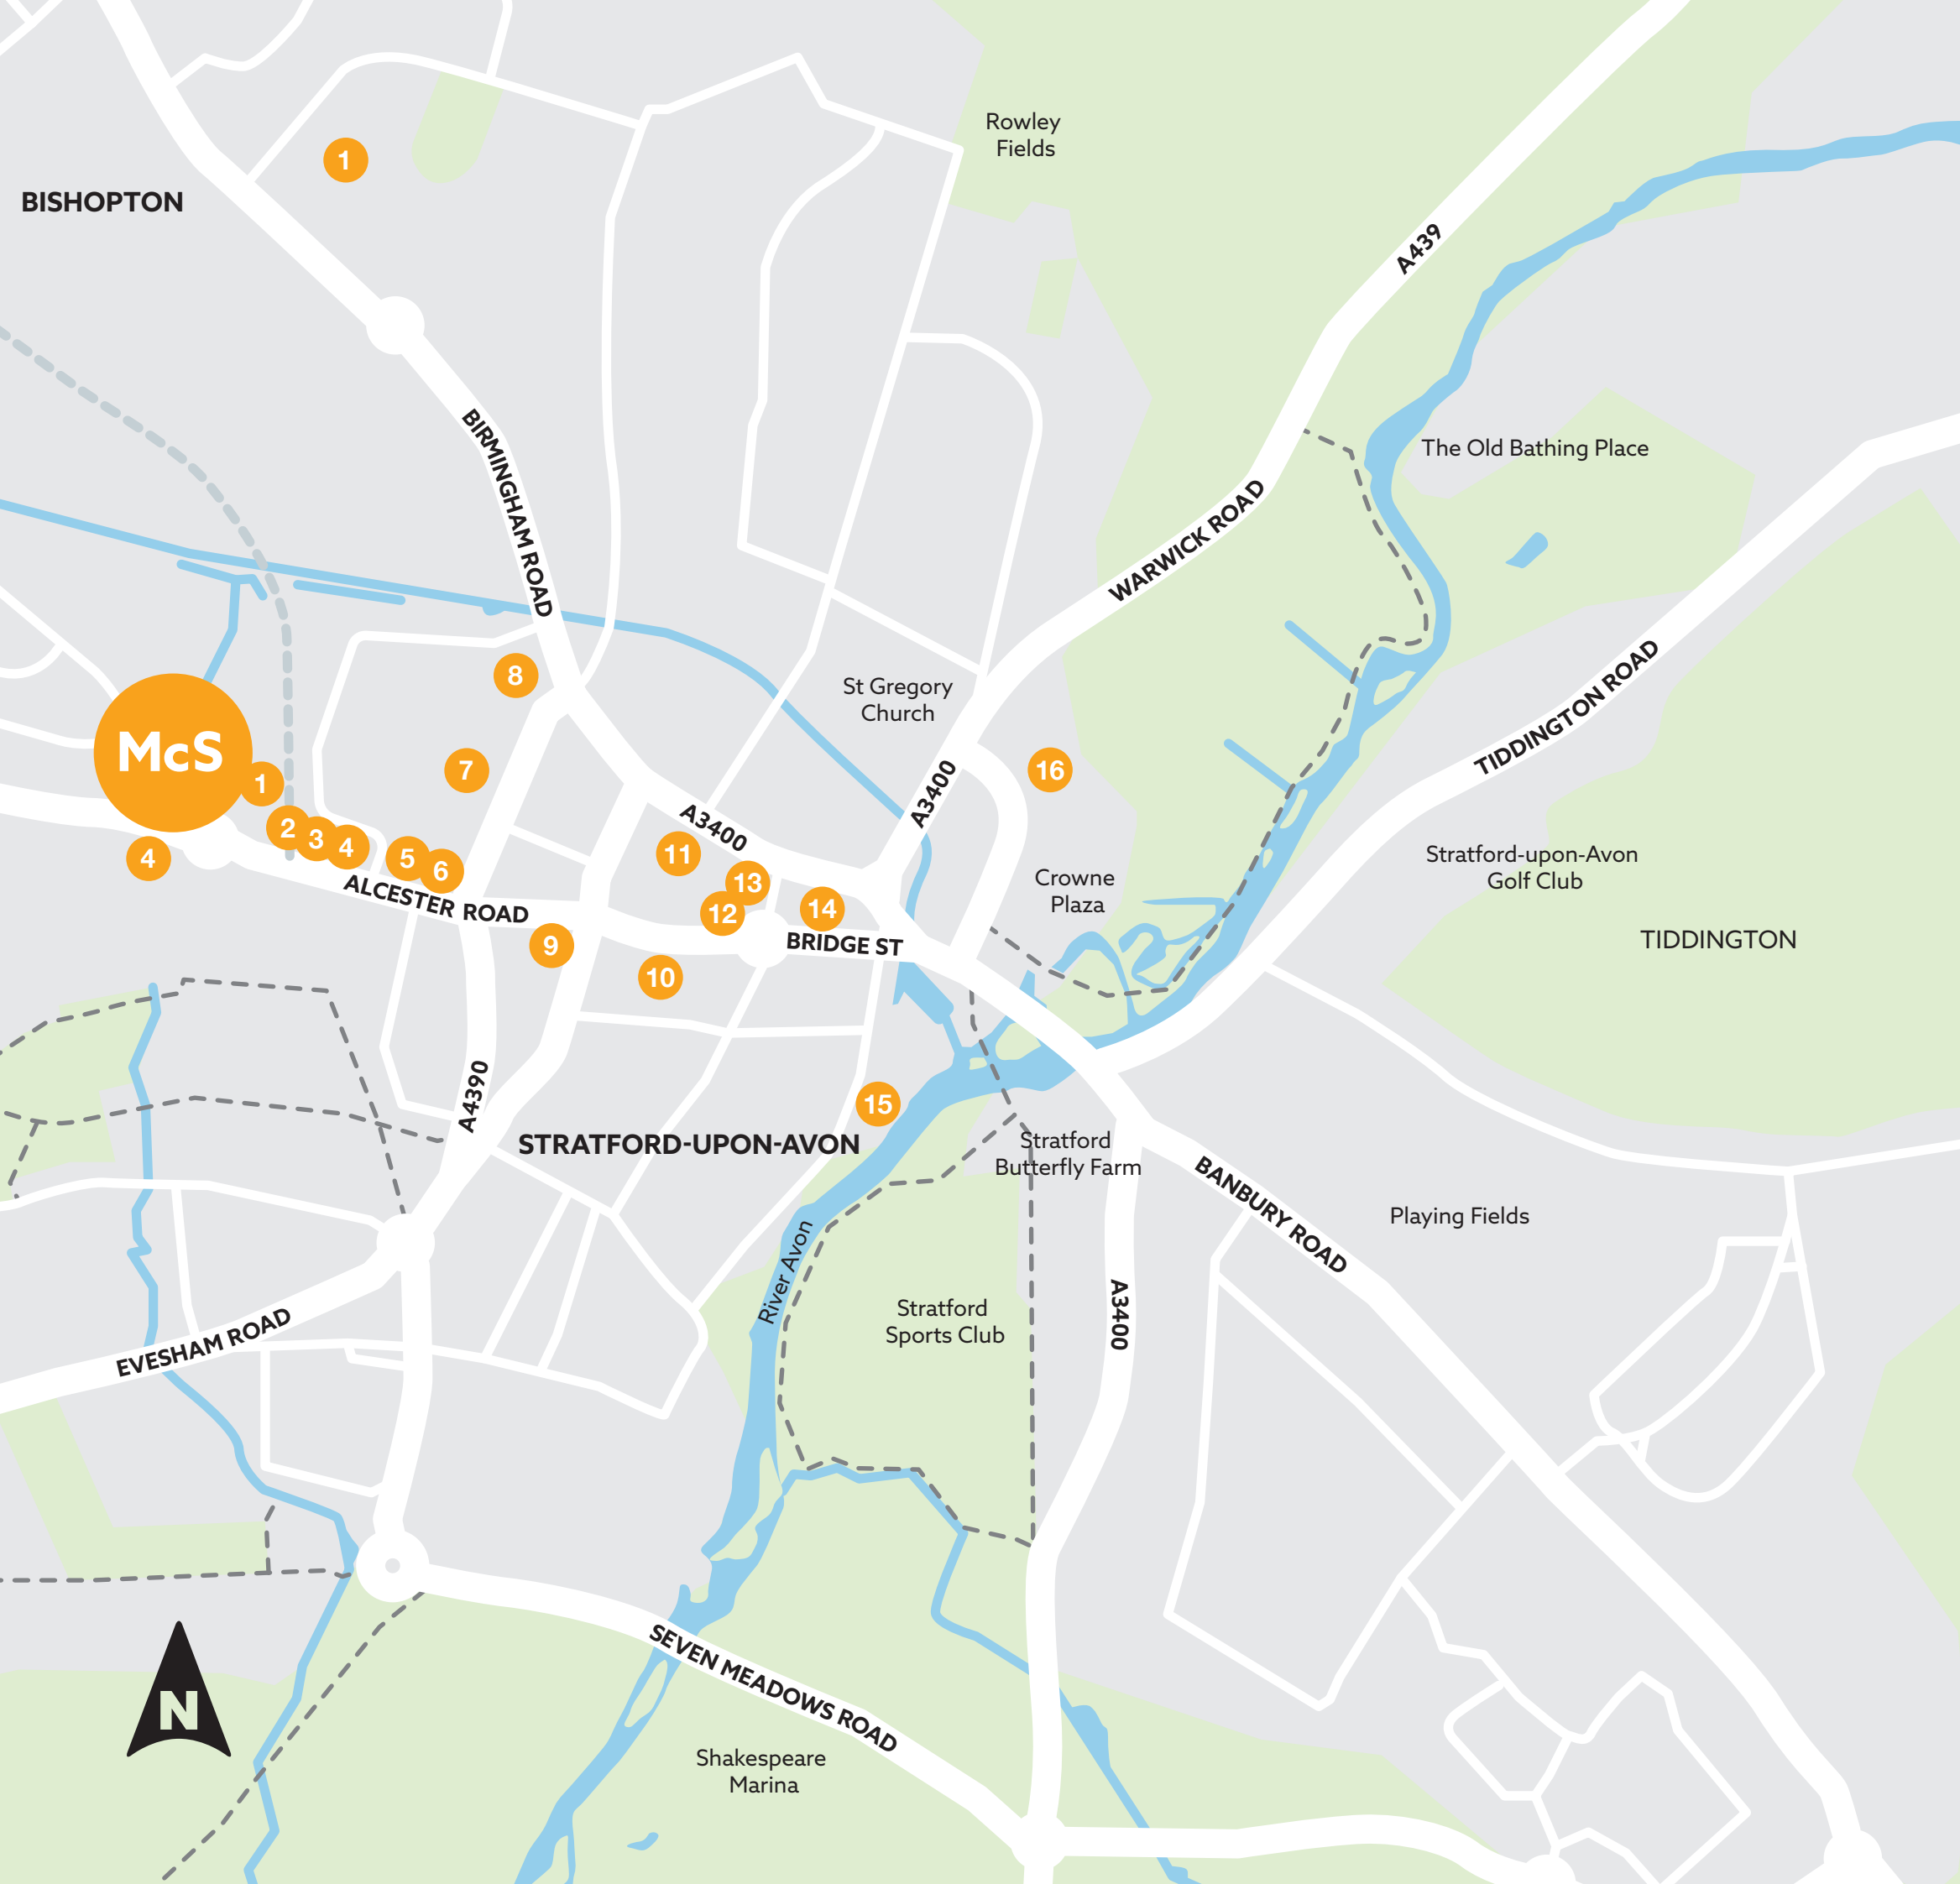

Every year in April, there is a festival to mark Shakespeare's birthday - other annual festivals include a literary festival in May, a river festival in July and a Victorian Christmas Market in December.

For those who enjoy being active, there's an array of organised walks and tours to explore the town and the winding river Avon that runs through it. Just 0.7 miles from the development, the canal also offers pleasant walks alongside open parkland.

There are two sports centres within a mile – a sports club with multiple sports and the leisure centre with two pools. Golf and bowling clubs are a 15-minute drive away.

For onward travel, the nearest bus stop is just 0.1 miles away from your front door, while the train station (0.3 miles) links you to Birmingham City Centre and London. By road you can be in Birmingham within 40 minutes via the M40 and the Cotswolds within an hour.

“Strictly nights with friends.”

Beryl,
McCarthy Stone homeowner.

Beryl has seen her community grow, and with it a great network of friends. She came here because she wanted an easy-to-look-after property and so gaining a full social life was an unexpected bonus.

Made for modern living, inside and out.

As you approach Romeo Place, you'll not fail to be impressed by its clean and modern design. White rendered walls contrast elegantly with the building's red and grey coloured brickwork, and the addition of black framed windows and balconies provide an elegant finish. The gated surroundings of the development and perfectly tended gardens complete the picture.

Inside, the reception area offers a welcome to homeowners, friends, and family alike. Walk on a little further and you'll soon discover the communal lounge – the social hub of our community. Its spacious design encourages leisurely catch ups or spirited social events that go long into the evening. There are lots of quiet spots too if you just fancy time with a newspaper or a good page turner.

Exit through patio doors to find a large, paved seating area. Overlooking a beautiful courtyard and landscaped gardens, it's a wonderful spot for socialising or soaking up some sun during the warmer months.

From here you can join a wide pathway, created to accommodate walking and mobility scooters alike, to a sunken garden with wooden benches and an eye-catching wooden gazebo – a great spot to enjoy the gardens on either side. Created for all-year interest, every plant, shrub and tree carefully selected for their vibrant colours or subtle hues. What's more, you don't need to lift a trowel or wrestle with a lawnmower to enjoy the garden. We look after all the outside spaces for you.

If you're the green fingered sort, there are some raised beds to allow you to grow your own plants and vegetables. Beyond them, there's also the option to explore a more secluded garden at the rear of the development. This west facing garden makes the most of the summer sun, allowing homeowners to relax and unwind right up until sunset.
