SEDLSCOMBE ROAD NORTH, ST LEONARDS ON SEA

£375,000 Freehold

Positioned in Upper St Leonards and a short stroll from Alexandra Park is this detached 1930's house. A red brick plinth grounds the softly rendered upper storey, a quiet expression of its era. Inside, rooms unfold with measured scale and light, enhanced by a composed palette and thoughtful additions.

Inside

The front door opens to a wide hallway, where stripped floorboards run underfoot and continue throughout the plan. A timber staircase painted in ochre with contrasting white strings rises to the upper floor. To the right, a principal reception holds a simple period fireplace and broad proportions. A canted bay window brings in morning light, framed with planting from the established front garden.

A second reception sits to the rear, currently serving as a dining room. A further period fireplace is set beneath a painted wooden mantel, paired with a neutral pallet and continuation of exposed floors. Glazed French doors open directly to the garden, welcoming the afternoon sun.

The kitchen lies adjacent, fitted with subtle white painted cabinetry topped in a pale stone effect worktop, with textiles softening the lower units. Checkerboard flooring finishes the room, with a walk-in larder and access to the garden.

Upstairs, three bedrooms unfold from the galleried landing. The principal bedroom sits to the front, wrapped in a chalky beige. A bank of wardrobes runs the length of the room, with large casement windows to the front. The second double sits to the rear, finished in muted green tones, with westerly views over the garden and roofscapes beyond. A third smaller bedroom is currently arranged as a guest room, this space could equally serve as an office or nursery. The bathroom retains its original proportions, dressed in bespoke cabinetry, a deep corner bath and period appropriate fittings.
