LOCATION

Farnsfield is a picturesque village located in the county of Nottinghamshire, it lies roughly 14 miles northeast of Nottingham and about 4 miles southwest of Southwell, nestled within the gently rolling countryside that characterizes this part of the East Midlands. Surrounded by countryside, Farnsfield is ideal for walkers and cyclists. It's located on the Southwell Trail, a former railway line turned walking and cycling path, offering scenic routes through woodlands and fields. Despite its rural setting, the village is well-equipped with amenities including a primary school, local shops, cafes, a couple of pubs (like The Plough and The Lion at Farnsfield), a village hall and churches.
