£400,000

Tucked away within the picturesque conservation area of Winthorpe, this delightful four bedroom semi detached cottage offers a rare blend of period charm, natural beauty, and modern comfort. Thoughtfully presented throughout, the home retains a wealth of character features and enjoys an enchanting setting with woodland to the rear. Pretty cottage gardens frame the front and rear of the property, complemented by a versatile garden studio or workshop - perfect for hobbies, home working, or quiet retreat. Inside, the accommodation flows beautifully, with a welcoming living room featuring a log burning stove and French doors opening onto the garden, creating a cosy yet light-filled space to relax. The adjoining garden room provides the perfect backdrop for entertaining, seamlessly connecting to a stylish Shaker style kitchen designed for both practicality and charm. A useful utility room with WC adds convenience to everyday living and there is also a third reception room. The Drive itself is steeped in history - once the approach to the grounds of Winthorpe Hall, it is now home to just five 19th-century cottages. Number 8 enjoys an especially appealing position along this short gravelled roadway, gently curving uphill and ending at tranquil Pears Wood. Surrounded by mature trees and natural hedgerows, the setting feels both private and informal, offering a sense of peace and timeless rural character just moments from village life.
