The Property

This detached bungalow sits a short way down a private track off Chollacott Lane, which is one of the areas most preferred locations, within easy reach to open moorland and the local golf club. There are attractive level gardens that wrap around the property with patio garden and level lawn as well as a private drive providing off road parking for several cars. Across a good part of the front of the property is a covered veranda style storm porch. Internally there is a hallway, L-shaped living /dining room and separate kitchen. Two double bedrooms are on the ground floor as well as a shower room/WC, and stairs lead up from the hall to a large third attic bedroom with lovely rooftop and country views.

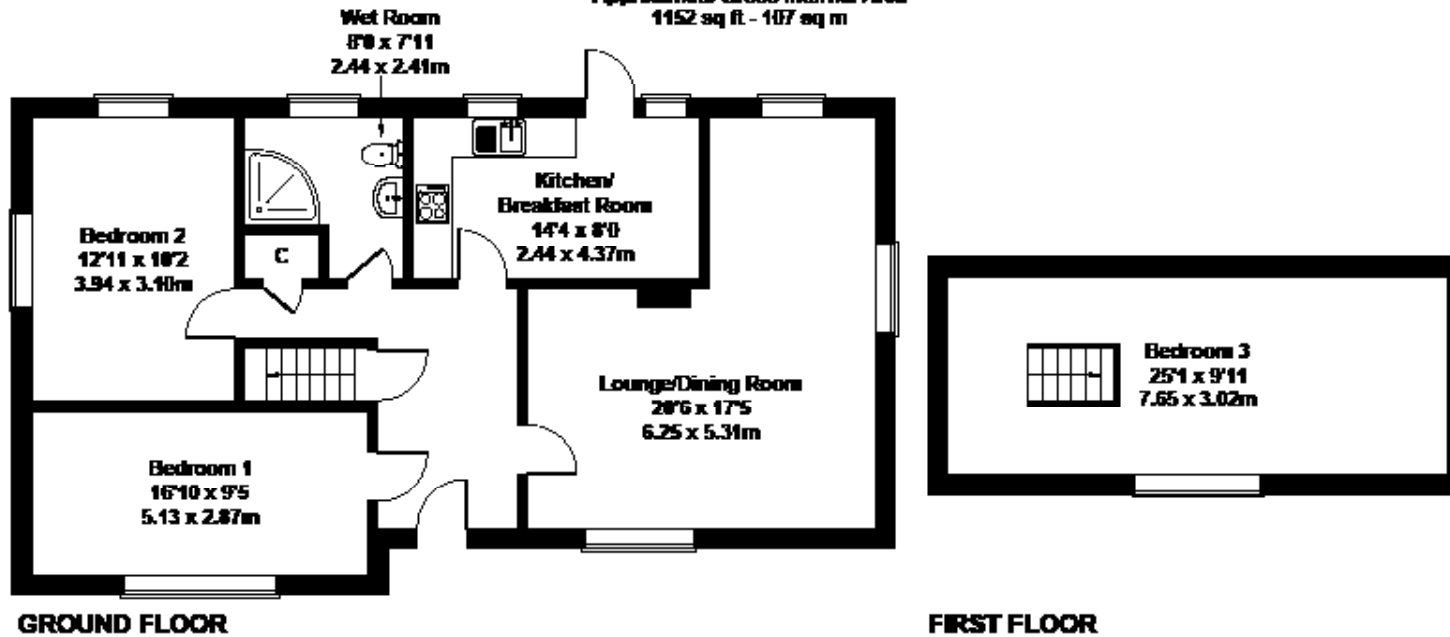

Location

Located off one of the areas most prestigious roads in a tucked away location, the property is within easy access of the amenities within Whitchurch village and also that of Tavistock town. Set on the western fringe of Dartmoor National Park. The nearby maritime city of Plymouth is also easily accessible by car or by bus.
