The Property

Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac on the edge of a busy village, this modern terrace house not only offers plenty of natural light throughout but also has far reaching views over Kit Hill from the front, and green fields and countryside at the rear. The ground floor is arranged in a circle allowing great flow between the rooms. The spacious living room is on the left as you enter and double doors from here give access to the dining room which has lovely french doors opening on to the south facing rear garden. A glass door leads on to the modern kitchen with great 'washing up views', and from here you are back to the hallway and that all important downstairs WC. Upstairs are two spacious double bedrooms, one with an en-suite shower room, and a small double/large single, all serviced by a main bathroom. The whole property is in good order and offers potential to open up the ground floor if desired.

Location

Bere Alston is a thriving village on the edge of Dartmoor with plenty of walks and cycle routes to explore. The village has many local amenities including a local shop, pub, church, village hall and local primary school. Tavistock is easily accessible by car and bus, and Bere Alston has a branch train line into Plymouth city centre.

There is a gated access leading to an allocated parking space. At the front there is a single garage (situated under the coach house adjacent) providing parking for one, or a good amount of storage. Access to the residents' park can also be found just opposite.
