The Property

This historic cottage was once owned by Queen Elizabeth I, and it was sold by the crown in 1561. 463 years on it remains an attractive and comfortable home. The front door leads into the spacious and atmospheric reception room filled with charming period features, including exposed staircase timbers and beams. A real stand out is its substantial fireplace with large granite pillars and bread oven with door intact, along with a modern wood burner with back boiler. Beyond the reception room is the kitchen / diner with tasteful modern units, electric oven and hob and kitchen sink overlooking the front garden. The bathroom has also been modernised in recent years and is just off the kitchen, where there is also an alternative entrance to the property that can be used as a boot room. Upstairs are the 3 bedrooms, all of which can accommodate double beds, with bedroom 1 being particularly large at over 12' x 15'. The entire cottage has been meticulously maintained by the current owners, and the property is ready for its new owner to enjoy from the start!

Just outside the front door is a courtyard garden, perfect for enjoying your morning tea or dining al fresco. Just beyond is an enclosed lawned garden and a useful shed, and the property also has a single garage and private parking space.
