Introducing this three-bedroom quasi semi-detached property located in Gorton, presenting a unique opportunity for buyers seeking a project to transform a repossessed home into a modern living space. While this property requires substantial renovation work to bring it up to standard, its spacious layout and prime location offer exceptional potential. On the ground floor, you'll find a large reception room, perfect for relaxing or entertaining. The generous kitchen/diner offers ample room for family dining and opens through double doors onto a sizable garden, an ideal space for outdoor activities and gatherings. Adding convenience, a downstairs toilet with a sink is also located on this floor. Moving up to the first floor, three bedrooms provide comfortable living accommodations, along with a main family bathroom. The master bedroom benefits from an en-suite, offering additional privacy and functionality. Additionally, this property includes a dedicated parking space, providing convenient and secure off-road parking for residents. This property is situated just off Hyde Road, one of the main thoroughfares leading into Manchester city centre, providing excellent transport links for easy commuting.
