Victorian Period Property with Huge Potential – For Sale via Modern Method of Auction

This fantastic Victorian semi-detached property offers a rare opportunity for buyers seeking a substantial renovation project with huge potential. Situated on a generous corner plot, the home boasts an impressive wrap-around garden providing plenty of outdoor space—perfect for landscaping, entertaining, or future extensions (subject to planning). The charm and character of the period features are evident throughout, making this a superb blank canvas for someone looking to restore and modernise a beautiful family home. Inside, the property comprises two spacious reception rooms, ideal for creating separate lounge and dining spaces, and a bright conservatory that overlooks the garden. The upstairs accommodation offers three large double bedrooms and a family bathroom, providing ample room for a growing family or home office setup. A new roof has recently been installed, offering peace of mind for any prospective buyer, while the rest of the property requires full renovation—making this an exciting project with endless possibilities.
