'Dingle Farm' is situated just off Dingle Lane, close to Sandbach's conservation area and St. Mary's Church. This beautiful home is steeped with character & some of the earliest parts of the property date back to the 1600's! The home has been completely overhauled by the current owners to include the addition of a new roof, a rewire and a full 'back-to-brick' renovation, creating a truly unique family home, combining modern convenience with the traditional charm that you would expect from a property of this age.

This will be a home of distinction for any discerning buyer with an impressive 2,830sq. ft. of internal accommodation. The home has a wet underfloor heating system to the majority of the ground floor with Porcelanosa floor tiles and conventional central heating with stylish column radiators to the first floor. The quality kitchen is timeless with it's 'shaker' units and quartz working surfaces. There are a number of restored features that flow throughout the home, from magnificent fireplaces and exposed structural timbers to thumb-latch doors and the imposing Tudor façade. There has been no expense spared on the sanitary ware either, having 'Villeroy & Boch' exquisite suites, complete with 'Hansgrohe' fittings. Three of the four bedrooms enjoy contemporary en-suite facilities with the master suite having its own dressing area and staircase leading from the ground floor.
