This beautifully presented ground-floor maisonette offers bright, spacious living, flooded with natural light. The property features two well-proportioned bedrooms, one of which benefits from a modern en-suite bathroom and an additional family bathroom for the other. The open-plan kitchen and living area is perfect for entertaining, complete with a stylish breakfast bar and access through french doors into to a private garden.

There is potential stamp duty savings if both properties are purchased together.

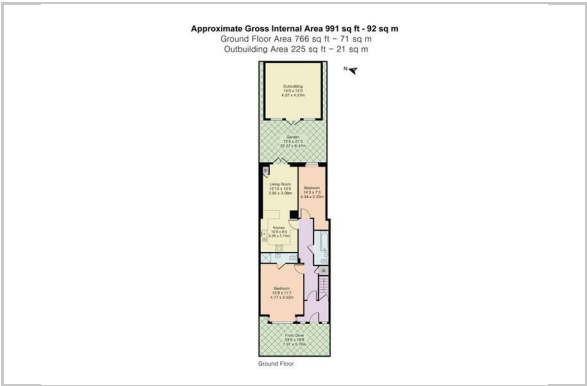

There is the added benefit of a driveway with parking for one car.
