Design That Elevates Everyday Living

A spacious yet welcoming premium home in the Redrow Heritage Collection. This detached family uses both open-plan and traditional room types to create a home ideal for families and modern living.

On the ground floor you will find a spacious family lounge and a recently converted garage adding extra loving space/snug. There's also the downstairs toilet and a separate utility room for keeping everything clean and tidy in the chaos of modern life. The kitchen/dining area is the perfect hub for spending time together at any time of day.
