HIGH GROVE

KEY FEATURES

Highgrove is a luxury recently built individual home constructed to an exceptional standard using premium materials and traditional skills and experiences.

The house is sat well back from the road behind automatic gates which lead to a spacious driveway area in front of the house and the garage.

Step inside Highgrove to the splendid reception hallway with sweeping staircase to the first floor. This impressive room connects the major reception rooms, WC and kitchen areas.

Upstairs the principal suite sits centrally in the home with French doors to a balcony over the rear gardens. There is an excellent Clive Christian fitted bathroom and a spacious and well planned dressing room. There are three other generous bedroom suites (two with walk in wardrobes). Again to the top floor and there is an expansive room which could be used for multiple purposes or sub-divided to create further bedroom suites as needed.

Step outside and the property is sat back from the road with a spacious sweeping resin bonded driveway, well-kept lawns and areas of planting. To the rear there is a good sized garden well landscaped with a large sandstone patio ideal for entertaining.

Agents Note: Please be advised this home is constructed & finished to an exceptional standard. We can provide further information on request and will explain the features of the home to potential applicants.

The property benefits from no onward chain.

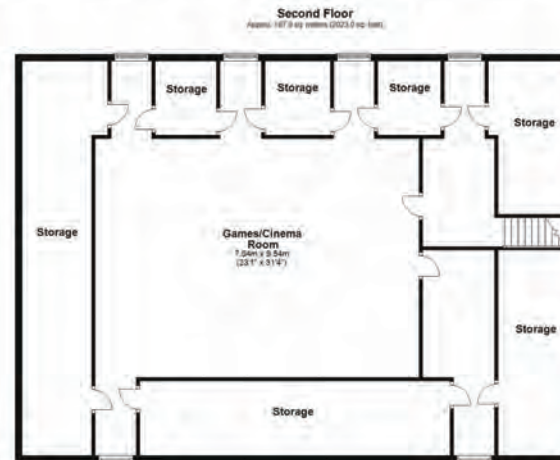

Total area: approx. 669.0 sq metres (7200.9 sq feet)
