GUIDE PRICE £500,000 - £515,000.....This charming detached grade II listed four bedroom cottage has been renovated to a high standard by the current owners. The property is located in the heart of Tillingham, which is a small village within the Dengie Peninsula with the closest town being Burnham-On-Crouch which is approximately 8 miles. The village is clustered around the historic centre which has been designated as a conservation area. There are two public houses which date back to the 15th century and two chapels. The village also benefits from a primary school, doctors, bowls club and a variety of shops. Being part of the Dengie Hundred which is bounded by the River Blackwater and the River Crouch, the village also has footpaths throughout providing pleasant walks.

The house offers generous accommodation over two floors with the ground floor consisting of a beautiful re-fitted country style 'L' shaped Kitchen/Breakfast room, dining room with Inglenook fireplace, lounge, with another Inglenook open fireplace, study/snug, utility room, cloakroom and a re-fitted ground floor family bathroom.

On the first floor there are four double bedrooms and a modern re-fitted shower room. Externally there is driveway with parking for numerous vehicles to the front with remainder laid to lawn. The rear garden commences a large patio seating area with the remainder mainly laid to lawn. There is a triple detached garage/workshop with power and lighting connected and also additional parking to the rear of the property. Viewing comes highly recommended to fully appreciate the size and standard of the accommodation on offer.
