This versatile four bedroom chalet bungalow is incredibly well presented by the current owners. The property benefits from two reception rooms including a first floor reception room/bedroom four measuring 8.2m x 5.6m with a vaulted ceiling, exposed beams and stunning farmland views. The majority of the ground floor is laid with solid oak flooring, the accommodation commences an entrance porch, a good size lounge with a beautiful feature fireplace with an inset log burner, kitchen, three piece bathroom suite, inner hall, snug/dining room with a feature skylight and three bedrooms with bedroom one boasting a separate dressing area.

Externally the property is set back from the road with a shingle driveway providing off road parking, a flower bed and small lawn area. From the front, there is access to the entrance porch, the rear garden via the side gate and the garage which can also conveniently be accessed internally too. The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with a pathway leading to the rear, a decorative flower bed and a variety of flowers, trees and shrubs. To the rear there is access to the farmland behind providing pleasant countryside walks.

The property is located in Southminster, a semi-rural village in the Dengie Peninsula area, popular with commuters due to its train station with links to London. The village also benefits from scenic walks, a primary school, tennis and football club, swimming pool, various shops, restaurants and public houses, something for everyone and ideal for families. The local towns are Burnham-On-Crouch which is within 3 miles, Maldon and South Woodham Ferrers both within 12 miles. The village has many character properties, cottages and Victorian residence. Historically the village was known for its annual horse market, and in the centre, St Leonards Church at the heart of the village dates back to the 15th century.
