**GUIDE PRICE £425,000 - £450,000**....This characterful three double bedroom cottage built in 1864 boasts a wealth of charm and is located in the quaint village of Althorne.

The accommodation is deceptively spacious and commences a hallway with access to the sizeable lounge/dining room with a feature fireplace, a refitted four piece bathroom suite, study and bedroom/reception room measuring 15'8" x 8'6". The first floor landing provides access to two further double bedrooms.

Externally to the rear of the property is a large, mature and secluded garden with a variety of flowers trees and shrubs, a courtyard seating area and undercover pergola. To the front of the property there are two separate driveways providing off road parking, one of which benefits from a carport. Subject to planning permission there is potential for a building plot. To fully appreciate the rare opportunity to purchase a beautiful, spacious, unlisted characterful cottage, viewing comes highly recommended.

Althorne is a village in the Dengie Peninsula benefitting from links to London via Althorne Train Station which is situated on the outskirts of the village. Located close to the station is Bridgemarsh Marina which is situated on Althorne Creek. There are two vineyards which produce award winning wines and include a café and bistro. Also within the village is a recreational park, village hall, shops, gastropub and tearoom. There are also plenty of scenic walks throughout the countryside. The closest town, Burnham-On-Crouch is approximately 3.6 miles from Althorne and provides an array of amenities.
