This characterful brick built Victorian cottage is situated in the village of Southminster.

Southminster is a semi-rural village in the Dengie Peninsula area, popular with commuters due to its train station with links to London. The village also benefits from scenic walks, a primary school, tennis and football club, swimming pool, various shops, restaurants and public houses, something for everyone and ideal for families. The local towns are Burnham-On-Crouch which is within 3 miles, Maldon and South Woodham Ferrers both within 12 miles. The village has many character properties, cottages and Victorian residence. Historically the village was known for its annual horse market, and in the centre, St Leonards Church at the heart of the village dates back to the 15th century.

The property boasts original features adding to its charm with the accommodation commencing a lounge with a bay window to the front and a feature fireplace, an inner hall with stairs to the first floor landing, a second reception room, kitchen and family bathroom. The first floor landing provides access to two double bedrooms and a third room accessed through bedroom two.

Externally the property boasts a 90ft mature, secluded rear garden with an array of flowers, trees and shrubs and a summerhouse/home office. The property benefits from a side gate providing access from the rear garden to the frontage which has a small front garden and a brick wall to the boundary. Viewing comes highly recommended to fully appreciate the size and standard of the accommodation on offer.
