Full of character, this property is a genuine project in need of restoration, offering an ideal opportunity for those with vision to preserve its historic features while adding modern touches. With the right investment, it could be transformed into a beautifully restored haven, combining traditional charm with modern functionality.

The cottage includes an open-plan lounge and dining area with exposed beams and a cozy fireplace. From the main reception room, a doorway leads to the kitchen, and access to a private, enclosed rear garden. The ground floor is completed with a shower room. Upstairs, two bedrooms with cottage-style doors and exposed beams add to its rustic appeal.
