Location

The village of Mautby is roughly 6 miles north west of the town of Great Yarmouth and 16 miles east of Norwich. Mautby is close to the Norfolk Broads and the coastal resorts of Caister-on-Sea, California and Scratby. Mautby church, St Peter and St Paul, is a small building with an interesting round tower. It is the burial place of Margaret Paston, who died in 1484 and is famous for the Paston Letters.

Directions

Leave Great Yarmouth heading north towards Caister on the A149 Caister Road, at the roundabout turn left onto the Caister by-pass, at the roundabout take the first exit into Norwich Road. Continue over the next roundabout into Main Road and after approximately a quarter of a mile take the second turning on the left in to Hall Road. Continue along Hall Road around the right and left hand bends for approximately a mile where the entrance to The Barn can be found on the left just before where the road forks to the right hand side.
